Memoranda for Books.
For "My Ogoro"

1. Tell about narrating Pa. [For reference, see Brown's "On the South African Border", page 209.]

(July 1903) s.s. "Olenda"

Tuesday June 30 } The Captain driving
Wednesday July 1 } work fast. He arrived ^{out}
Thursday " 2 " } the Kamerun river late, Friday " 3 " } at top of tide, as he could not get any more freight from Habis. Very skillful out of river; & by night, anchored at mouth of Calabar.
On Wednesday, safely up river; and promptly
to work, loading oil.

On Thursday, still very weak.
On Friday, was visited by Rev. ^{Misses} Rankin and Mr. Gage, ^{Mr.} Craig of the Scotch Mission. The Kamerun children not well.

Saturday, July 4 } Started, at about midnight,
Sab. " 5 " } down river, stopping, on the Monday " 6 " } way, for tide; and, by day-Tuesday " 7 " } light of Sab., out of the river, and out to sea all day. Mr.
Craig a passenger. He was very kind

2) ^{S.S. "Oleanda"} (July) and companionable. Reached Bonny after dark. Some passengers, common board at once. And, others come early on next day.

Monday July 6: About 10 or 12 Bonny traders, the place with more foreign houses than I had seen before. Bought, at too great price, the Bonny grass-mats. One of the men, a Mr. Thompson, who said he had ~~fairly~~ seen me at Gaboon. Was on deck, when a storm came up, & Capt. sheltered me in his room. Left Bonny, about 9 A.M. Steam all day & all night. Had steward rub me with alcohol, & it lessened my night sweats.

Tuesday 7: Reached Forcadas, at about 2 P.M. Sent off letter, by Mr. Craig, for sister Belle. Forcadas grown to be a great place. Other passengers came on board. Quite a number of steersmen in front; among others, a Niger stern-wheeler. Among the new passengers, was a Dr. Adams, in charge of a lady sick with heart-disease. Left, about 3.30; and, two hours later, stuck on the bar.

Wednesday July 8. Off the bar, by 3. A.M. For the first time, since coming on board, dressed myself in morning. Sat on deck, a long time, in chair of Mr. Laws, one of the Bonny gentlemen. Came down, & for 3/4 hour looked over my steamer trunk. Am growing ⁱⁿ strength. Early in afternoon, at Lagos Roads. A German steamer & branch steamer there; also, the Eng. "Borne", & branch boat. The latter crowded with native passengers, for us & for "Borne". Rough water: transferring our own native passengers to the branch steamer. Sat on deck

4) 18.8. "Orenda" July 1991 Forward
In afternoon, till 5 P.M., Wind strong & cool; but, I kept protected by my thick double blanket. Enjoyed the air;
it braced me.

Thursday July 9: A second stewardess
had come on board, ^{yesterday} from the "Baron";
she not knowing there was one on board already. The sick lady was a nurse in a hospital on the "Tiger". For a second time, I dressed myself, in the morning.
Reached Acra, about 9 at night.

Friday July 10: Active scenes of ^{sister} boats coming & going. Sent letter to Bell.
Bought photos. Off again, about
7. A.M.; and reached Cape Coast
Castle about 5 P.M. Confusion of boats & passengers (native). Bought more photos. Accident of the crane rope breaking, & the launch falling on deck
and breaking. Fear I have overstrained

S.S. "Olenda"¹²⁰⁻¹¹ (5)
my strength to day. Reached Sekondi about 9:30. P.M.

July 11, Steamer early at work, taking on passengers. Did not dress till 8 A.M., by wh. time steamer was again on its way. When I went on deck, about 9. A.M., was told that W. Wood, formerly of H.C., of Gaboon, was master of the "Bakana"
traw lying at Sekondi, & that he had been on board of this "Olenda"! In the afternoon, at Axim, Wreck of the "Tareegilli". Off again, for Sierra Leone
Sabbath July 12. At sea.

Monday July 13. By 8. A.M., sighted land, & coasted the Kroo coast, to find Grand Bass, in order to land Kroombi. Captain not well. Anchored at about 5:30. P.M., & whistled for canoes to come. After waiting almost an hour (as we were 5 miles from shore) the "Bassei", wh. we had left at Axim(?)

1855: "Olenda" 1855
b) came alongside, & offered to relieve
us of our Kroonen, as she wt. lie
there that night, & we then could go on. But, just then, the canoes came,
& the Kroonen were off by dark. And,
we went on our way.

Tuesday July 14. Along the Liberian Coast all day, passed Monrovia (my first African land, of 42 years ago) about 5 P.M. Gambling of "sweepstakes" began to-day. Wrote letters to leave them ready, if we reach Freetown to-morrow. Do some walking on deck; passengers say I look so much better.

Wednesday July 15. Still at sea, with occasional sight of land. Steamer slow, only $7\frac{1}{2}$ knots.
In afternoon, sighted the mountains of Sierra Leone. Exactly at 6 P.M., we anchored at Freetown. Entertainment of boats. As we went in, the "Sekondi"

(7)

Capt. Harrison, came out. A young white man from shore, who had formerly been clerk at Holt, in Gaboon, said he had been on "Sekondi", & had seen ^{on board} Mr. & Mrs. Ford. Sent letters to post office, for sister Betsy, & Mr. Ford, & Argentynes. Fourteen crew passengers. Opposition to having 3 in a room; at first, 2 were put on one, but, they were taken off, & I was given Mr. Cossery, the West Indian. Bought postage-stamps. Noise & confusion late at night. About 10.30 started for Ballouet. Had gone to saloon for dinner, the first time.

Thursday July 16th. Went to saloon for breakfast, for first time. On deck a little, in A.M.; but rain. In my cabin, trying to reduce my bundles & packages. Got quite tired. Clear weather in afternoon. Music with one

8) of the negro ^{L. G. L.} ~~gentleman~~ ^{L.S.S. "Olenka"}, who had come on board at Sierra Leone. A great variety of animals brought by the passengers.

Friday July 17. The finest day yet: sea smooth and blue; sky clear & bright, temperature comfortably warm. At 9. A.M., by appointment with the 2d Officer, Mr. Stewart, went into the hold, & he got 3 of my trunks, in one of which I found the suits of clothing I have wanted; & in the other, I found space for putting packages I had to get rid of from my cabin. The passengers gambling over the "sweepstakes". Saw the North-star, for the first, on this journey. Anchored at mouth of the Gambia, about 8.30 P.M. A pleasant chat with one of the passengers, a Dr. of Govt. Schools in Southern Nigeria.

(July 1903) (9)

Saturday July 18th. Up the Gantia, & at anchor at Battanat by 8.30. A.M. View of the old pier, from wh. my grandfather's pony, of 1881, was killed. Mrs Gault & I remember being over with ashore
here at the Wesleyan Mission, in Nov.
1881. Bought some postage-stamps.
Had expected to take the Governor as passenger. He did not come; but, a lady (English) and 6 men. In view of our animals. An antelope and two little fawns. Tired myself with going from point to point, to see things. A beautiful day & smooth sea.

Sabbath July 19th. Very quiet orderly day. Stayed below most of the day. Weather becoming cooler.

Monday July 20th. Too cold & windy to go on deck. Went into the hold, & opened trunk, & got out my

10) ^{15.5. "Oleanda"} old over-coat, but I was ashamed to wear it. Wrote for the Board. Annoyed at smoking in saloon. And, Mrs. Gault told me of her being annoyed in her rights in the ladies saloon. Late in afternoon, overcame shame of my shabby coat, & put it on, & went on deck, & walked. Heard that one of the little antelopes had died.

Tuesday July 21. See somewhat moderated, also, wind less, & temperature higher. But, I went into the hold, & opened 3 trunks, & got out cardigan, shoes, & thick under shirts. Finished copying my letter to the Board. Heard that, late last night, (after I had gone to bed) Capt has sent word to the saloon, forbidding smoking there. Mr. Mackay, Inspector of last shots, Bonny, gave me some fine Bonny photos.

Wednesday July 25. Satisfaction & ill feeling of most of the passengers, against the prohibition of smoking in the saloon. But Capt. kept firm, & the ladies allowed their saloon to be used for smoking, after
8. P. M. Still slowly at sea, with cold wind & rough waves. Playing Kummernick with Mrs. Gault.

Thursday July 26. At Las Palmas, by 9.30. A. M.
Did not go off. Mrs. Kummernick went, to buy shoes & socks ^{for} _{her} children. Better stay on board; all things bought in boats; Fruits,
pears, lemons, grapes, bananas. Birds,
canaries, & cockatoos. Cigars & cigarettes Florida water, photo-fortals, photos,
netted shawls, lace work, stamps, wicker chairs, &c, &c. Taking on coal & several thousand crated bunches of bananas (the slats for crates bought in small schooner, from the U. S. I bought. Photo-fortals, photos, coral necklaces, netted shawls, & grapes. Started

13 ~~13~~ about 7, P.M. Strong wind.

Friday, July 24. Wind, wave, and cold all moderated; but, still the wind was strong enough to be opposing. Had eaten too many plums & grapes yesterday, &, with a little headache, did not eat any mid-day meal. A very fine sleep at night, after some music in the saloon by Purser Wyld.

Saturday, July 25. Weather pleasant; but, wind rather strong. Saw 3 steamers in afternoon, all going south. Began a letter to Argentia.

Sabbath, July 26. Day beautifully clear, sea smooth & blue, sky blue and clear, wind slight, temperature warm. Breakfast was very late; excuse of poor coal. No church services. No disorder, except a few gambling, & a few playing quarts. Wind at night

1903 13

Monday, July 27th. Rather cool on deck.
Birth day anniversary of Mrs. Knauer's two children. Wind stronger, in afternoon.
Only one steamer seen to-day. At lunch, there was a fruit I had never seen or heard of before, a distinctive melon without seeds, the size of a large egg, but longer: exactly the taste of a cantaloupe; but, its skin was smoother & thin, the general color of a green-gage
plum. Along the coast of Spain.

Tuesday, July 28th. Last night, steamer began to roll some. During night, passed Finisterre light-house. This morning, rolling ⁱⁿ Bay of Biscay. A pleasant sight again to see land; but, the worst day of all, rolling almost to nausea, & dull drizzling rain, with wind that drove us below. In afternoon was asked to sing in Concert, which was postponed, because of rolling;

W^{ed}nesday July 29. Bright sun; little wind, & not so much rattling; but, in the afternoon, though still bright, the coldest
day of the journey, though wind was not strong, just a decided sinking of the temperature. Mr. Scott, at my table, kindly exchanged seats with me out of the cold draft. ~~and~~ Names at our table, Purser (Wylde), Scott, Mackay, Fairbairn (engineer), Porter (Loyd's Soc'y
at Lagos), McCollum (brother of Mrs. Russell at Batticaloa), Gourlay, a young negro, & Graeham (?). Usual light, about 7.30.

The concert ^{at} night,
from 9 to 11 P.M., very successful. I succeeded in singing. Was annoyed by the apparently drunken conduct of a man named Wither; & after we had dispersed, some were very noisy. Weather still cold.

July 1903 15

Thursday July 30. An early breakfast, & the Eddystone lighthouse. At Plymouth, by 9.30; $\frac{2}{3}$ of our company left here, with much baggage. Very cold weather continued. Started again at 11. A. M., for Liverpool. Had some headache. Went to bed early.

Friday July 31. Did not get up to breakfast, as headache was increased, & I fasted. Stayed in bed, because of cold, until 10. A. M. Steward Williams sick. Cold moderated; in afternoon, temperature pleasant. Took on fillet, at 5.30 P. M., with 50 miles yet to go. Reached ~~Friday July 31~~ anchorage at 11. P. M. Amazing uncertainty as to what our passengers might or might not expect, about Custom House offices & our baggage, about going ashore. Beautiful view of Liverpool dock lights. To bed, at 11.30.

16 [Liverpool] Aug. 1. 1903
Sat. Sat. Aug. 1. Slept so soundly that I did not hear the ship dock, when I awoke, at 5 A.M., we were quickly in dock. Rose at 5.30. Breakfast at 6.
Planning with Mr. Knauer & Mr. Gault,
an event of no one coming to meet
us. About 7.30, agent of Pitt & Scott came. Very helpful. And, about 8 A.M., Mr. Powell, of B.M. & Co, came with letters, from sister Bella. No opening of baggage by Customs offices. Mr. K. went ahead with Hildon, Mr. Gault & I followed. At Lawrence,^{hotel} shortly after 9 A.M.
Bought postal-cards for U.S. Gave out soiled clothing. Mr. G. went with me, at 10.30, to 28 Brunswick.
Word about "Majester", etc., & then, Mr.
Powell, went with us to Pitt & Scott.
And, beginning at 11.30 A.M., my trunks were rearranged by 1 P.M. And, back to Lawrence to dinner. Then, I went out to Holts, & Keen's, & A & C., & bought crackers for parrots & fruit.

17

And wrote, & read, ^{sister} Bell's letters
for the third time.

Sabbath, Aug. 2. Slept very soundly
last night. Breakfasted at 8 A.M.
Fed parrots. Went to church, with Mrs
Gault, to "Jan" McLaren's, at Loftus Park. His assistant preached. Could not refrain observing dresses and hats & bonnets & faces. A pretty child with French-doll face. Hearty dinner.
Mrs Gault & Mrs Kenner took out
the children for air. Reading quietly,
my overcoat a great comfort.

Monday Aug 3rd. Bank Holiday. Did not go out all morning; but off writing letters. In afternoon, went, with Mrs Gault, for a walk on the streets;
& saw the crowds of holiday-makers.
Got some ice-cream. A large

13 Liverpool, Aug. 4th.
number of very rude and rough
people, recently arrived from the U.S.;
very bad manners at table. And,
in evening, at the Coffee-room,
one was intoxicated. I made complaint, after supper, to the office.

Tuesday Aug 4th. After breakfast, went to
B. K. & C. stopping, on the way, at White Star office. B. K. & C. were not open; &
I sat down at the Pier Head. Walked
a long way, to buy corn for parrots.
At the "Don", bought rug, cardigan, & night-gowns. Dinner very quiet.
In afternoon, went to 81 Dale st., & saw Mr. John Holt. Stopped at a restaurant, for ice-cream. Tired
with the day's walking.

Wednesday Aug. 5th. A talk with Mrs. Gault.
Went to Pitt & Scotts, Jo Keen's, for my watch. Back to hotel, & wrote to sister Bella. Finished packing. Mr. Powell came with tickets, ^{to America} I have had difficulty talking over telephone. Paying tips. At 2.30, to the landing stage. Waiting $\frac{1}{2}$ hour. Had forgot my umbrella. Mr. Moore came. On steamer. Farceal medical examination. My 2 room-mates, Glaze, a naturalized Am. citizen, & McLachlan, a former steward on S. African steamers. Went to bed early.

Aug 1903 19

Thursday Aug. 6th. At Queenstown, about 7.30 A.M. had to wait for mails, & did not get off again, till after 11. A.M. Wind still cold; sea not very rough. Mates in room 56, an American naturalized, Glaze; an iron-worker from Illinois, & McLachlan, steward, from South Af. Cape; ~~was~~ going to N.Y., to take steward's office

29 ^(S.S. "majestic") On line from N.Y. to the Cape.
A 4th came on, at Liverpool, a young Englishman, Crowder.

Friday, Aug. 7th Mary's birth-day. Sea
became very rough, in afternoon, & squalls of wind & rain; $\frac{2}{3}$ of passengers sick. Was changed to Room 39.; a nice young Englishman
from Birkdale, & an old man from Wisconsin. Stewards often to me, about conducting Services
on Sabbath.

Saturday Aug. 8th Weather & sea improving, but still cold. In evening, list of passengers was issued; but, on 3
miss'g names were not on it.

Steward called Rev. ^{Dr.} Hanson, a Metho. minister, near Downingtown, Pa., to assist me in the Sab. Services.

Sabbath Aug. 9th Chief steward arranged with me to preach, & he would read the prayers, as Mr. Henderson was not well. The Service was held, & I was enabled to preach with some acceptance. The sea & weather much improved; I was able to go without either my overcoat or reg. In the evening, enjoyed sacred music, listening to singing & playing by a Miss Edith Bedson (who resembles daughter Mary), & a Mr. Haynes (an actor).

Aug. 1903

Monday, Aug. 10, Beginning of fogs of Newfoundland Banks. Had to pay $2.50 freight for my parcels. Most of the day, sea was smooth as a river; got money changed to U.S. money. Am tired of the frivolity of some opera ballerina girls on the steamer.

Tuesday, Aug. 11, Nothing special; but, in evening, a Concert, wh. I did not attend, for, the chairman was R.C. Frost, & one of the performers was young passenger.

Wednesday Aug. 12th. Smooth sea, foggy in the morning. Warm, pleasant day. Began to write letters. And, to pack trunks. In afternoon, watching distant shores of Long Island, & calculating chances of landing to-day. Coney Island brilliant with electric lights. Took on Pilot. At Quarantine, took Customs offices, for declaring baggage. Actually in dock by 8.30. Went on wharf, to show baggage, at 9. P. M., till 11. P. M. Trouble with stevedores wanting to make us go. Trouble about my 4 boxes for Prof Libbey. Mrs Kramer in trouble, having lost her keys. Went back, to sleep on steamer, leaving our things with Alexander (of Union House).
Thursday Aug. 13th. Up early. Breakfast at 7. Alexander came at 7.30. More delay about Mrs Kramer. All went in one cab, for $2.00, to 19. W. 21st,

+ then to ^{on the 13th} Miss Home. Miss Bahr,
Mr. Garrison, Mr. Rayner, Mr. Hand.

Letters from Garrison, Paul, May, Ogden,
Mrs. Louisa, Belle G. At one books.

William ^{his wife} + May came. Went to dinner,
W + M, at 2. P.M. Ring + parent.

The Coan family. Dr. + Mrs. Wishard.

Miss Schooler, all of Persia. With Secy. of Halsey, + with Mr. Hand. ^{dozen}

at "Majestic" landing stage. At night, writing. Caught cold.

Friday Aug 14th

At Miss Home, + was told I need not stay about Library books, opened box of ^{books}, +
got one I wanted. Went to dinner, + met Mrs. Wood at dinner, with Mr. Gault.

Packed suit case, + left at 1.30. P.M. At 2. P.M. got ticket + directions from Miss Bahr, to leave at 3. P.M. At Jersey City, was told it was a mistake, + had to wait for 6.15. P.M. Ate a good meal at the Station.
On train to Trenton, + change to Bedminster

24 ~~dim.~~ At Bolton, by 10. A.M. No one waiting for me, nor even any wagon. Went to Warren House, & stayed over night.

Saturday Aug 15. After breakfast, at 9. A.M., went to Mrs Paul's, & met Mary. They were surprised at my arrival. It was arranged that I should stay at Mrs Paul's 2 days, & then return to hotel. Went with Mary to get my seat-case from hotel. Chatting with Mary. Chilly weather.

Sabbath Aug. 16. Chilly day. Went, with Mary & Miss Paul, to 2^o Presb. Ch., Rev.

Edmonson. He observed me from the pulpit, & wanted me to speak; but, I deferred, till another time, introduced to Mrs Edmonson, Mrs Mackay, & Mr. Seaford & to Mrs & Miss Hutchinson.

In afternoon, I went to take me of the 1st ch. difficulties. To church again, in evening; a young Mr. Seaford preached.

The evening Aug. 17th. Awake with a chill, & ch. lected several hours, till Miss

Book made of ¹ - ²⁵ fine in the grate.
Felt very much like bad grippe. At 11. A. M., went, with ~~my~~, to engage room at a hotel. Bought grain, etc., cough medicine, & paper & ink. In afternoon, felt better. Mrs. Edmundson came to see me. At 5. P. M., went to hotel, & took possession of room. At supper, went to R. R. Station to express Sister Bella's ten of packages to Sister
Louie, but agent was not there.

Went on to Miss Paul's, by 8.30 a.m., but they were still at the table, & I did not ring, & came away.

Tuesday Aug. 18'. Felt still somewhat shaky, wrote a long letter to sister Bella, went to consult Dr. Abbotson, about myague, cough, & weakness.
After dinner, posted Bella's letter, & mailed the tin of palm-nuts, & then on to Miss P.C., where we have friends

26 Belvidere N.J. Aug. 1903
Mrs Waydell visiting her & spent the afternoon with Mary. After supper, in evening, Mary came to see me; and I walked home with her as far as the gate.

Wednesday Aug. 19. Letter from Dr. Cox, about the ~~one~~ parrot; answered it, & wrote also to W. Hand, for Willing, & Prof. Libbey. The desired trunk came from Decca Lane. At New Paul's; & gave Mary one of the 2 Canary-island fish-scale flowers. Some rain fell. Feel better, except the cough is bad.

Thursday Aug. 20. A warmer day. Spent morning in arranging the rest of my ~~etc~~ several proposed books. ~~to~~ ^{the} after About noon, Mary came, & went with me to bank, to cash a check. In afternoon, desired for company; & went to lumber to cut off mast of my beard. To Miss Paul's, for a walk & felt chilly. Went, with May, to call on the Huttererian family. While there, was taken with a chill, & hurried to hotel staying with ague. A letter from a Miss Chance, of Boston, asking for African story for her book for children.

Friday Aug. 20th. Rose weak from my ague. Lighted the oil-stove. Could not do any writing. In afternoon, wrote a letter to Prof. Libbey, & one to Miss Chance. About 5. P.M., went to part-store, & happened to meet Rev Mr. Breen, Supper at Miss Paul's. Afraid of being out at night, did not go to prayer meeting, at 2nd church, went to Dr. Aberton for medicine.

Sat. Aug. 21st, Felt better. Re-arranged my paper, & destroyed a lot of old bills. In afternoon, Rev. Edwards com...

28 to engage to preach on Sabbath - 30.
The local newspaper had already announced (without authority) that I was to preach tomorrow. Mr. Blair's carriage was sent, by Mrs. Emery (?) & gave me and me
a ride of an hour around the country.

Sabbath Aug 23rd. A pleasant warm day:
was able to go without my coat. At 2^o Preach. ch. And dinner & afternoon at Miss Paul's; & 2^o ch. again in the evening.

Monday Aug. 24th. Did not rest well last night. Think the banana I ate yesterday morning not good. Arranged old letters. In afternoon, went to buy cuffs, collars, &c. Mr. Edmondson called. Went to Miss Paul's; but did not stay long, as rain started. A big traveling organ - wheels stopped & gave music. A Merry-go-round being put up in the Park, in preparation
the Farmer's Pic-nick, for Wed. 27.

[Belvidere, N.J.] Aug. 1903 29
Tuesday, Aug. 25. A good day: felt well, and weather was warm enough.

Spent a solid morning in revising Chap. 1st of "Fetish". May called to see me, bringing me a very fine peach. Dr. Albermarle joined me at dinner. In afternoon, went to Miss Paul's, & Harry sang & played for me. Returned through the Park, & saw preparations for the Farmer's Picnic to-morrow.

The second day of the International Yacht-Race: I hoped Sir Thos. Lipton would succeed. A valuable mail came, one from Am. Leg. Soc'y, containing $825., one from Sister Bella, with $4. worth of Spanish postage stamps or Prof. Libbey; one from Mr. Ogden, making some kind statements; one from son William, gratified with his parent; & one from Stated Clerk Roberts, about the minutes.

39. ~~Wednesday~~ ^{Belvidere N.J.} Bright clear day. The Farmer's Picnic in the Park. Various games, till about 10.30 A.M., when I went through the Park, seeing the crowd, & the various amusements, Merry-go-round, Rifle-shots, ball throwing at bay figures, Ring-throwing over umbrella handles, Tests of strength on an anvil, Slot-machine for showing one's future, Pea-nut, Pop-corn, Candy, Ice-cream, other stands, Band-platform. Went to Miss Paul's, & saw Miss Scranton. Mary was out riding with Miss Morrow. To dinner. Dancing was being held at hotel, Rested; & at 3.30, went to Mary, & with her strolled in the Park, & sat on steps of Park, ch. The crowd begining to scatter. A good day. In evening, Mary called to see me, & I went out to get ice-cream.

Thursday Aug. 27th (1903) T.B. wireless (81)
Somewhat cloudy, & threatening rain.
Wrote letters. Revising Chap. 2nd of "Fatish."
Went, with Mary, to call on Rev. Edmundson.
In evening, Mary & I at Dr. Abbott's
office, for treatment of our throats.
After my return to the hotel, Rev
Mr. Breen called on me.

Friday Aug. 28th. Cold rain all last night & all today. Copying Chap. 2nd of "Fatish" in more perfect order. Visited Mr. Arthur Norton, on his father's death; &
then Edgerton. About 5. P.M., went to Nine Pauls, for supper, & started to Prayer-meeting with Rev. & Mrs. —, but, was afraid
of rain, & left them & came to hotel, stopping,
on the way, at Dr. Abbott's, who told me about an interesting evangelist, an English lady, a Miss Ray.

Saturday Aug. 29th. Very cold & damp. I started the oil-stove; by noon, the old fan-fitter has started his business.

32) over the house. All the morning is at the copying of Chap. 2^d. of "Fetish." In afternoon, went to Miss Paul's. While there, Mr. Edmundson called on me. Back to hotel; at supper, Mr. Schneider arrived, father of the family. He sits at my table.

Sabbath Aug. 30^c. Rose constipated, & with some headache. Trying to arrange my thoughts for the evening. Rain continued, went to Miss Paul's, & escorted her & Mary to church; & returned to dinner. Headache increased. Left, & came back to hotel, & took fruit salt a little, to allay my nausea. Bald; & lighted oil-stove. Still difficult to arrange thoughts; ate no supper. Was drowsed, as I went to church, but the fruit salt was acting as a laxative. In meeting, felt quite uncomfortable in my bowels. Revs. Bruce & Hutchinson in the pulpit. As I rose to speak, forgot my discomfort in the bowels, & spoke,

for almost an hour, & a day, in (33)
of excited 1st & 2d. Pres., & Methodist. May sing a choir solo very well. My address is appended.

Monday Aug. 11th. Copying on "Fetish". People were complimentary on my address¹⁸ last night. At Miss Paul's, May was out visiting some Blair Hall girls; & 2 ladies were awaiting her there, Miss Harris & Miss Fox, & a third, Miss Ketcham, came in, In the evening, I called on Rev. Bruce. And, when I returned to hotel, people in the office kept me talking, t'ill 11.30 P.M., about Africa.

Tuesday Aug. 12th. At Chapter 16^{of "Fetish"}, May went to Easton, to buy shoes. In afternoon, the Blair carriage, with Mrs Scranton & Mrs Weydell, came & took me a pretty ride out by Oxford church. Went to 6.25 train, to meet May; & introduced to a Mr. & Mrs. Wallace, boarders at this hotel. In evening, to Dr. Abbott's office; and then

34 to visit the Rev. Hutchinson, young Mr. Hutchinson accompanied me to the hotel; and there I was kept talking Africa until after 11 P.M.

Wednesday Sept. 2nd. A day pleasantly warm. At 10th ^{of "Fitch"} A.M. copying. In afternoon, to Miss Paul's, met Mrs. Horace there. After supper, went to get ice-cream, and thence to Dr. Abbott's office, where May followed me. At the hotel, introduced her to Mrs. Stanley. I feel very well. What four letters today.

Thursday Sept. 3rd. At 10th ^{of "Fitch"} A.M. and sending a part of 6th to the Journal of African Socy. In afternoon, a short call at Miss Paul's. And went to Mrs. Blaine's housekeeper, Mrs. Emory, to stroll in the grounds. After supper, for ice-cream, & May overtook me & joined me. And then, to Dr. Abbott's. Before going for ice-cream, had stopped at Mrs. Crandall's & met her friend, Miss Smith, a trained

music, who had done work with poor (55)
Charles at St. Peter's Hospital, in Phil.
Found also Dr. Allen knew of Charles,

Friday, Sept. 4th. Very foggy morning; but,
by 9. A. M. the sun clear. At chapter of "Fetish" 8th & 9th. Wrote to Count de Cardi, for the "Journal of the African Socy". Went late to Miss Paul's. Many in it, at times, found Miss McCann there, & Mrs. Crane also. We came, for the latter stayed to tea. After tea, many remained,
in time to go with me to church. Rev
Mr. Huntington, of Hackettstown, led the meeting. After meeting, found that a son of Prof. Coffin, of Easton, was there.
"Uncle Tom's Cabin" show in town.

Saturday, Sept. 5th. Very warm in morning, a fall of temperature in afternoon, with signs of rain. At Miss Paul's. Got my concert
wh. I had left at cabinet makers, on Monday, for repair. December is coming.

36 and at Dr. Albertson's, where many followed me. A successful week with "Fetish", & health improving.

Sabbath Sept. 6. Cold clear morning, which became warmer by noon. At 2^o P.M. Dr. May's solo "One Sweetly solemn Night". Did not go to Miss Paul's to dinner; but went later, had singing, & tea; and 2^o ch. in evening. A pleasant day.

Monday Sept. 7. A cool variable day. Wrote corrections on Chap. 12^o; a began letter to Sister Bella. In afternoon, to Miss Paul's, & took May to Rev. Edmonson, & played croquet, Miss E. & I, against May & Rev. E.; two games, one for each. At supper, we had New Mackay. Left, at 7.30 P.M., to go to Dr. Albertson; but, he was not in his office.

Tuesday Sept. 8. A damp chilly day. At Chapters 15^o & 16^o, immediately after dinner, went to Miss Paul's, for May, & took her to the Show, of wonderful, & de-gymnastic performances; very late for 2 hours; but left, when the vaudeville dancing was announced. Was very tired with my intense interest. Dr. C. was was sitting near us. At the hotel table, sat a man who was one of the two finest of the trapeze & fancy riding

performers; with his wife & their beautiful & admirably behaved little daughter.

Wednesday Sept. 9th, Writing letters; a long one to Rev. S. G. Bunning, formerly of Africa. At Miss Paul's afternoon, a young Miss Ketcham
was there. A cold damp day. In evening,
May came to hotel, & quite a company
of the hotel boarders, the Stanleys, & Mr Ribble (who used to be a parishioner of Rev. J. M. Patterson of Milford, now of Trenton), and a lady, an osteopathist, Doctor Turner of Phila, a Rev. & Mrs. Brees made a call. ~~but May brought me a present~~

38. [Helvidier, Fife]
Wednesday Sept 10th. Finished letter to Mrs.

Brummig. At noon, May brought me a strange letter, from Miss Paul, that caused me much anxiety. Wrote my reply in the afternoon, & sent it by May in the evening. She, with the others, had been invited to Mrs. McCannan's, for the afternoon. In afternoon, I took a walk down the river-bank, & along the Pequat stream. Felt very much depressed.

Friday, Sept. 11th. ~~As~~ Went to Dr. Montague, May brought me a reply, from Miss Paul, to my answer to her of yesterday. It announced that she & co. no longer take charge of May. Wrote a number of letters. Strolled into Mr. Blair's premises. In evening, went to 1st Park Cl., to see Stereopticon views of our African Mission; & Mr. Bruce called on me to explain some of them. Was introduced to Judge

[Belvidere] (Sept. 1903) (39)
Shipman, & lawyer Harris, and a Mrs. Kleinane; & remained to explain
some more, about a dozen other pictures that had not been exhibited. On return to the hotel, was kept talking with the Stanley family and others.

Saturday, Sept. 12. Writing letters, and preparing Address for Sabbath Communion. In afternoon, went to Mrs. Paul's, & had an important conversation with her, deciding that May should continue with us, and I showed the ladies my new African photos; & I stayed to supper; and then went with May to Dr. Albertson's.

Sabbath Sept. 13. Bright, clear, a - day.
At morning Service, made Address at the Communion table. The entire day at Mrs.
Paul's. A happy day.

Monday 14th. Wrote short note to Mr.
Blair, & Carrie H. Hocmill. At Dr.
Albertson's office. In afternoon, a very fine ride in Rev. Blair's carriage, with May & Mrs. Deacon, to her former home, at Oxford Furnace. The Hoagland family, Took her at Miss Paul's, & went with them to 2nd Presb. ch., to hear Rev. Dr. M. Stearns speak on Porto Rico. Doing some packing, for leaving Belvidere.

Tuesday Sept. 15 } packing up
Wed. " 16 } trunks. Rev. Dr.
Thursday " 17 } Hutchinson called, to say good bye. Took early tea at Miss Paul's; & went, with May, to Delaware & Blairstown. Her many schoolmates on the way, Miss Cook, & Miss Cook, & others. At Blairstown,
Rev. Dr. Butler met us. At Blair Hall,
Miss Marshall, a Mr. Wilson, and Miss Sharp. & Mr. Wills; & 2 ladies who knew "Hesters" Emma & Anna. Rev. Dr.
Sharp came in late. Was disappointed
I did not get a talk with him, about

many. A long time before I could sleep.
On Wednesday, Rainy and high wind.
At breakfast with the Principal.
An unsatisfactory waiting, to get Mary's studies located. The Morning Prayers in the Chapel.
And I went to dinner, at Dr. Butter's., Here, at 3. P. M., went again with Mary. And left at 4. P. M. On arrival at Belvidere, found my coat
I had left in the Station there. Went to Chinese Laundry, and to hotel, and made to Mr. Brown (?) and to Miss Pauli, & told my story; & to Dr. Alberta, &
gave him an elephant tick.

On Thursday. Finished packing. Said good at hotel, & Miss Pauli, And left at 10.10. A. M., to Phila., & to 1515 Wallin, Welcomed by ^{son} Charles ^{his wife} & Bessie. My trunks came. gave Bessie some things, in the evening.

42). Friday, Sept. 18th [Philadelphia]
Opened & unpacked the box of books, etc.
had been sent from New York to Charles,
and selected what I would give to Lavin. At lunch, William arrived; & I went down town with him, & expended some German & French books to Mary. Had then went out to Wayne, to Mr. & Mrs. G.
& Miss Emily G. & Willie, & the 2 children, Katherine & Dorothy. I gave the latter the coral necklace I had bought from Las Palmas. Returned at night, with Charles, who had some shopping, & went to bed late.

Sat. Sept. 19th
After breakfast, went down into the city,
to Lantz, & had my Sealy hand & umbrella left-hand trunca changed to right; he charged me nothing. Then, to a watch
maker, & had a glass put into my watch;
& then to Bassis, & bought a new fence.
And then to Wanamaker, & got tags &
then home, to lunch. Mrs. Tamm had arrived. In afternoon, went with her ⁴³ to Broad St. station, where she was to go to Wagner, & I went to Green, Lanes. In little Willie's sick room. And, in the van-loft, at my trunk; & went on truck to the station. Mrs. Wardell, & the family, and back in 1515, by 9. P.M., Mr. & Mrs. Patten, living away, were making an evening call, - I observed them & that the African photo.

Sabbath Sept. 20. Rose with headache. Went alone to Rev. Dr. Wadsworth's church, &, after Service, introduced myself to him. He but little for luncheon & alone, as Charles did not return home after 2 P.M. I had had difficulty in talking, on telephone, to a nurse at Hospital. Headache all afternoon & die nothing. ate no supper, Charles went out, to find supper, Mrs. Mrs. Patten called in & I went to church of Rev. Dr. Cameron, at 19' & Green, & lost my way.

44) Monday Sept. 21: [Philadelphia]

Went down into city, & exchanged the hot Charles heat given me: & bought, at Kimball's, a nice clock & exposed it to many. Lunched alone, & went to 2. P.M. meeting of Ph. of Phil. & met Rev. H. F. Lath, J. T. Lee, White, H. Gibbons, Eckels, Newkirk, & others. Returned for supper: but, Charles had to go out at night again.

Tuesday Sept. 22:

Went out to Colored Home, and stayed an hour with Mammie Sneed. On return, Bessie was arrived, & was putting her rooms in order. Read, & wrote a letter to ~~to~~ yesterday; & went with Bessie to a drug store. A new servant girl, Margaret Sargent. We went to the Wagners, at 8 P.M.

Wednesday Sept. 23. In afternoon, went out to Queen Lane, Looked over many boxes of books, in the stable-left, for some of the books. Rev. & Mrs. Lee and Charles had been invited to supper. With Williams & Mr. Moore, went, by trolley, to church of Rev. C. R. Erdman, & addressed them: the "Nassau Club". Back to 1515 Wallace, by trolley. Mr. Patton was there with Charlie, who had gone oysters & needed abirds which had been sent him; & he cooked them very nicely, and I ate a late second supper.

Thursday Sept 24: Looked down cellar, at my boxes stored there. Baggage man came for my 4 trunks. Left, at about 10. A. M. And, from Broad at 11.02. A. M. to Princeton. Reached Prof. Libby at about 1. P. M. In afternoon, called on Sister Esman and the nieces.

call on Mrs. Prof. Baldwin.
Sat. Sept. 26th.
Looking over some of the "Fitch" chapters making some corrections. In afternoon, went to see Sister German, Princeton looking very beautiful. Prof. Libby returned in the evening.

Sabbath Sept. 27th.

The night had been rainy, & the morning threatening. Went to Sem. chapel, with Mrs. Libby, Rev. Dr. Orr, of Glasgow, preached.
Had some headache, & took medicine &
rested in afternoon. At dinner, Prof. & Mrs. Baldwin, with their children, were present. In evening, went with Prof.
Libby to 1st Presb. ch., & heard Dr. Orr again. In coming from church, in the morning, has met Rev. Dr. DeWitt & Mr.

Dr. C. and Miss Duffield.

Monday Sept. 28th.

Morning quite cool. Went to laundry
& to grocery, & bought fruit and ate some of it at Sister German's. And then, got my shoe from the shoe-repair shop.

At revision of the chapters, in afternoon,
[Trenton, N.J.,]
went with Mrs. Libbey, to hear, at Miller Chapel, the first of Rev. Dr. Orr's Stone Lectures. In evening, my class met, Rev. H. L. Baker, called to me.

Tuesday Sept. 29th At "Fitch" Revision.

Prof. & Mrs. Libbey went to New York, &
Prof. Fairley's inauguration over the College of New York. Late in afternoon, went to the 2nd Stone Lecture. After an early tea, Prof. Libbey, who had returned,
took me down Bayard st., to crossing of the Johnson trolley, at 7.20 P.M., & I rode to Trenton; and thence to Aunt Hamm's old home, welcomed by Mrs. H. & Nellie Green. A pleasant evening chat with Carrie High.

Wednesday Sept. 30th. Breakfast late, at 8. A.M., with Louis Bush; spent morning in reading, Mrs. Hamm &
I then went to New York. At 12.30,

45 A.M. went to Hughes Bank; and Barker Hamill took me to the Fair, cattle, & Midway, &c, &c. And, to the Grand Stand & Box 7¹, by favor of Dr. G. of the Fair, Mangerum, is Col. John Kiser. Was introduced to him and his brother Randolph, Judge Woodruff, Col. Van Holme, ex-State Senator Blackwell, & others. The Lope, & the Drive, and the Balloons, & comic gymnasts. A rush of the crowd for the cars back to city. At supper, Mr. Hamill & Nellie were retained. And Miss Isabella Grinnell; she gave us music after supper, pretty ballads. A very pleasant day.

Thursday Oct. 11. After breakfast, I followed Hugh to bank, at 10. A.M.; and then alone to the Fair. Walked, & lunched; and then, at 1. P.M., to the box on the Grand Stand, soon 3 young ladies, nieces of Col. Kiser,

Trenton, N.J. Oct. 1903 / In Princeton's (49^o)

And, subsequently, the Queen, King, & their wives & sister, & the old grandmother Priscilla. Went with the young ladies, & got a drink, & with Mr Radolf Kueker, was introduced to Sir M. Macmillan, in his private office. Gov. Murphy, and U.S. Senator Dryden, & other politicians came to the Fair. Barker Hamill came, but he did not stay long. Left, in time to escape much of crowd. Mr.
Conor Hughes, Matilda & Hugo had returned from Water-Eck. Drank tea & toast, & Hugh & Hugo escorted me to the Trolley, which was late, at 7. P.M. And, before 8. P.M., I was at Prof. Libby's. He was out, at his soldier drill. And Mr. Libby soon came back from Phila.

Friday Oct. 2nd

Had a slight headache, which increased
during the day, & the thought

50) [Princeton, N.J.] (Oct. 1903)

I worked at my revisions, & felt so dull, & I did not go to hear the 5 of Rev. Dr. Orr's "Stone" Lectures. After supper, at 4 P.M., the 2 lovely ~~the~~ Baldwin children were present, Mrs. Libby played a piano, & they sang some new College songs. Prof. & Mrs. Baldwin came for the children, and Rev. Mr.

Battelle, of the 1st Presb. ch., called on me.

Sat., Oct. 3rd

Prof. & Mrs. Libby went to New York, to a funeral. I continued at my ^{of "Fateh"} revisions. In afternoon, went to a University Foot-Ball game; & then saw the Senior class comic parade. Then, went to the R.R. Station, to see time-tables; on the way back, got my washing from the laundry, & stopped at the "Alumni Weekly" office.. Is Prof. Libby not returned by 9 P.M., I went to bed.

Sabbath, Oct. 4th Monday Oct. 5

A clear day. Slight breeze. At 9 A.M., left for Cranbury Station, to see cause of my return to U.S. Feeling very much better.

Sabbath Oct. 18, Sat up, dressed, and went to Table, for noon meal. The Baldwin family there, as usual. Pretty little Elizabeth gave me a present for the 11th, and Prof. & Mrs. Baldwin gave me photo of ^{her father} Rev. Dr. Green.
Got tired, and went ~~to~~ early in evening to bed. Miss Lettie Holman had, in afternoon, spent an hour with me, in Prof. L's study, &
brought grapes & a very fine apple.
Monday, Oct. 19th
Felt much better. Went down stairs & after breakfast, to the study. But it was not warmed enough, and I returned to my room, wrote a ~~bit~~
but lay on the lounge with my sung, till my fire became good & warm. Proof-read Chap. VI, with the Lilley in afternoon. And, in evening

when lying down at night, ~~preventing~~ my sleeping well. At letters, +
proof-read one chapter with Mr. Libby.
Dr. Macdonald came, to give me an alarm gongle, for my watch. Another chapter in evening. A dozen letters came back to me from Africa.

Friday Oct. 23

A dull cloudy and somewhat
showery day, did a big day's work, in reading and noting the 12 letters returned from Africa; proof-read with Mr. Libby, two chapters^{of "Facts"}, and re-packed 3 of my trunks, +
one of the boxes of those I had sent with things to Prof. L., in order to have the box sent to the Mission House.

Saturday Oct. 24, up to breakfast. Mr. Libby & Polly went to New York. Completed
my packing, did a little revision
on Chapter Xth, Prof. Libby packed, closed, and directed my box of

58) (Mrs. Greenway Oct. 1903) some books to the Mission-house. At 3. P.M. Prof. L. had ordered 2 carriages, one for me, and one for my baggage. And I went out doors (the first in 12 days!) to Sister Letitia's. The daughters were away at Trenton. Belle returned in time for supper. I enjoyed supper. And went to bed before 9 P.M.

Sabbath Oct. 25

A clear day. Did not go to church, but remained with Sister Greenway and Lida. Mrs. Libbey came, in afternoon, to see how I was. Only Lettie went out in the evening.

Monday Oct. 26

Bright cold day. Wrote letters. About 11. A.M., went to drug-store, and get quinine in capsules, glycerine, medicine for spraying the throat, & Relanwine; and, at drug-store get stamps. About 5. P.M., went out again, to post letters. In the XVII; Chapter of "Fetish." There remain the work of Table of Contents

of chapters, and a general Index.
In evening, again played "flinch"
with the family.

Wednesday Oct. 28
Cloudy day; but, cleared off in evening.
Rev. W. Bartlett called, to see if I was ready for the evening Stereopticon Views of Africa. About 4.30 P.M., I went to Prof. Libbey's; & an hour later, Mr. Waight ^{of Trenton} who was to do the exhibiting, came; and at tea, Prof. L. returned from military review at Trenton. At the 1st Ch.
Lecture room, I talked of the Views, for an hour, till my voice

Friday .. 6 } At the chapters. The two

Miss Miller called, in evening.

Nov. 6. clear and cold, still at the chapters. In afternoon, Elder Reid, of the Kingston ch., came for me, & took me to Rev. Reid; he was away, & Mrs R. busy; the 2 little twins entertained me. In evening, walked to the church, & addressed the Ladies meeting. Cold night, but I was kept warm by the coal fires.

Sat. Nov. 7

Cold morning, but the coal-fire in my room kept me warm. After breakfast, Mr. Reed drove me to Princeton, found a mail awaiting me. Finished the 14th chap. of "Fetish". In afternoon, took nieces Belle & Littie to La Fayette & Princeton balloon races. Was annoyed at a stranger having taken one of my reserved seats. In

(Nov. 1903)

evening, went to Prof. Libby's to see about some of the other chapters.
On the way back, bought a pair of new gloves, for Sabbath wear.

A very cold clear day; I wore my winter over-coat.

Sabbath, Nov. 8th

Clear and not cold. At 1st Presb.
ch., Rev. Bartlett away, hence his sick father, Rev. F. W. Loetscher, a licentiate of New Brunswick Poly, and assistant to Rev. Dr. DeWitt of the Sem., preached both morning and evening, & excellent sermons, with fine delivery.

Monday, Nov. 9th

Bright, pleasant day. Wrote some letters. Sister Emma came to spend the day. In afternoon, I went to laundry, post office, newspaper store, drug-store, & ticket, for travel Saturday at night in Alexander Hall, sat with Mr. Carter, and he walked home with me.

15) McGraw (Dec. 1903)

Bella on Monday night; and, on Board Tuesday, came the ^{See p. 2} notice of the mission telegram to "delay", in my case.

Thursday, Dec. 10th

finished article for "African Soc'y Journal"; Wrote to Mrs. Bannerman.
In afternoon, went to call on Prof. Libby;

he was away. Called on Miss Vinton.

Friday Dec. 11th

In morning, writing. In afternoon,
at 2 P.M., went to Museum, & met Prof.
and Mrs. Libby & Prof. van Ingen, and we verified & ticketed the things I sent to Prof. Libby 2 years ago. Then, went to see Mr. Bartlett, & engaged with him for 2nd Sat. of Feb'y. On the way, had met Rev. Dr. Brooks of Trenton, who had been at meeting of Conference at being with Rev.

Campbell Morgan. In evening, Rev. Richard Greene called, invitation to dinner next Thursday. At 8.45 P.M., went, with niece
Bella, to a Song Recital by Francis Hayes, in Alexander Hall. A telegram from Cousin Hugh, delaying my coming till Friday.

(Dec. 1903) [Princeton] 76

Sat. Dec. 12th Spent most of the day in reading "To Hold and to Have", and re-packing my 2 trunks. In afternoon, did not go, as I had expected, to Trenton, but went to Prof. Libbey's, & re-packed my 2 trunks there. Prof. & Mrs. L. were not at home; but Mrs. L. returned before I left. Went to look at Prof. L's new house; was over-taken by Rev. Librarian, Rev. Dr. Dulles. In the evening, 2 daughters of Mrs. Esman's former cook, Hannah, came to see her, the oldest Hannah Belle, a married woman, but so small I thought her a child. A telegram from Conn. High wondering why I had not come to Trenton.

Sabbath, Dec. 13th } Very rainy Sat. A.M., but Monday " 14th } it cleared off at ch. Very small audience.

In evening, full ch. Rev. Dr. Richards preached. He belongs to the For. B.^o. After ch. I went and introduced myself.

18) Trenton (Dec. 1903)
On Monday went to Trenton & consulted
with Condie Hugh, about the B.D.'s action,
very comforting. Went to Aunt Hamm's

After lunch, went to Woodhead, & paid his bill. To Dr. Dickey, & he made final exam. of my eyes. To Wanamachers, & paid my monthly bill, & bought 1 doz clerical collars. Back again, & found a letter from Rev. Dr. Dickson, & answered it; & went to supper with Mrs. Patten, & stayed & played bagatelles. Retired later.

Sabbath Apr. 31. A clear cool day. To Dr. Warden; and back in time for church at Rev. Dr. Wadsworth. An elaborate musical Sat. Sch. exhibition. At lunch, at 1515 Wallace; Miss Hotchkiss there. Returned, and stayed in doors; but, went out to an early illustration of the Service, at 130/Atlantic City Apr. 1904.

Dr Wadsworth, did not stay in the regular evening service, but came back to receive May: but, she did not come till about 9. P.M.
Monday Apr. 4th. Left the house at 8. A.M. as we were leaving, Mr. C. came home, to report that May did not come Left market at 9. A.M. Racing with a Reading train parallel with us. At Atlantic City, went to Hotel "Denis";
sent our cards to Julia Ross; she was not in. Went out and walked for 2 hours on the Board-walk; but did not find her. Returned to hotel; &
soon she came in. And Mrs. Webster & Mrs. Ross. All bunched together. And then we, with Julia, walked; & went through the "Old Mill"; & the Music
box. And Mrs. W. & Mrs. R. followed us.
And, at 4.30^{P.M.} May & I left, & Julia came part of the way. And train was crowded. Late to supper, and Mary went to Mrs. Wilber Patterson. Mr. Davis

called on her. And later, came Mrs Garnett, Mrs. George, & Lettie &
retreated. Mary came home late.

He. school grades very low.

Tuesday Apr. 5. To Dr. Warden with and she went alone to do errands.
I went to Nibbles, to Rev. Dr. Roberts,
at Union Building; to Gimbel's; & back here. Mary had arrived, for lunch, took bundles to 1515, At 3 P. M., took Mary for her train, & met Mrs. Garnett & Mrs. George. Bought ticket to Trenton, & engaged Union Transfer. Back here, & took other bundles to 1515, & packed them.
Again noticed. Paid Mrs. Fairbairn my two, & went for supper to 1515, & in evening, regally with Bessie & Mr. Patterson.
Went to bed very tired.
